

Control Freak

He wants to control everything - doesn't like subordinates to make any decision - tends to hoard information - Doesn't trust anyone easily - live in fear of what if.
- Report him/her to death - ask a lot of questions about assignments or projects he/she gave you - try to gain his/her trust by giving him/her daily report

THE AUTOCRAT

He/she has his/her own objective - Doesn't care about his/her employees - never satisfied - He/she thinks he/she is the only competent person in the company
Make their objective to be your objective and help him/her in achieving that objective

THE BLAME FIXER

He/she makes everyone else responsible for fixing his/her problems - He/she takes no responsibility for his/her employees - Favorite sentences "SOMEONE SHOULD FIX THAT PROBLEM" or "SOMEONE SHOULD DO SOMETHING ABOUT THAT"
Try to fix the problem not the accusation - Document what you and your boss do and what he/she told you to do and how to do

THE SOFT HEART

He/she will tell you what you want to hear than turn around and do the opposite
- Tell him/her to be frank with you - Share your concerns and perception of a reality

THE POLITICIAN

He/she is charismatic - Has always something positive to say - Not frank/lie most of the time - Has no real competence - Depend on individuals in the company who are competent to make him/her look good
- Be a person that will make him/her look good but do not expect to get the credit for your accomplishments

THE TEAM BUILDER

Very competent at what he/she does - Frank - Solicit ideas and creativity from his/her employees - Know how to make tough decisions and does that in professional way - Expect commitment and involvement
Be open - Tell him/her what you want and what you think - share your ideas with him/her - Ask for help when you need it - Be a team player ment d_lo
